

POLICY:

Environment

Policy Summary

Cox Purtell recognises it has a responsibility to the environment beyond legal and regulatory requirements. We are committed to protecting the environment, reducing our environmental impact and continually improving our environmental performance as an integral part of our business strategy and operating methods, with regular review points. We will encourage customers, suppliers and other stakeholders to do the same.

Directors and Management are responsible for ensuring that the environmental policy is implemented. Every employee has a responsibility in their area to ensure that the aims and objectives of the policy are met.

Policy Details

We are committed to:

- Complying with all relevant regulatory, legislative & statutory requirements
- Meeting the requirements of ISO 14001
- Setting and reviewing environmental objectives and targets
- Continually improving and monitoring environmental performance
- Continually improving and reducing environmental impacts
- Incorporating environmental factors into business decisions
- Prevention of pollution, and
- Increasing employee environmental awareness and training.

We aim particularly to minimise our environmental impact in the areas of:

- Paper usage
- Office Supplies / Purchasing
- Transportation
- Office Waste

The organisation will monitor and assess relevant updates or changes to environmental legislation, codes of practice or standards at suitable intervals.

James Purtell – Managing Director
Last Updated: 18th November 2020

"We're passionate about people, that's why we do recruitment better."